 Griffin Motivation

 Jeff Griffin

"The environment that kids are growing up in today does not prepare them for the real world of perseverance & problem solving. Jeff's well-polished and humorous presentation had the audience engaged as he went from one idea to the next. His enthusiasm for life and for setting & achieving goals made me think about my own life. Jeff's message is perfect for these students to expand their vision. His life is a true example of resilience and perseverance."
